
'The Sea'
Year One
2nd Half Summer 2015

Science

- Water experiments
- Floating and sinking (tap water/salt water)
- Investigating 'waterproof'

Numeracy

- Consolidating the four operations (+/-/x/÷)
- Finding halves and quarters of quantities
- Multiples of 2s/5s/10s
- Money – totals/giving change and problem solving

Literacy

- Poetry – water, 'Commotion in the Ocean'
- Fiction – writing fantasy stories
- Non-Fiction - alphabetical order and dictionaries
- Role play – Under the Sea
- SPAG – introduce the terms noun, verb, pronoun and prepositional and use contractions (I'm, I'll, We'll)

History

- Sequencing seaside holidays from the past
- Look at how seaside holidays have changed since Victorian times
- Punch and Judy shows

Design Technology

- Design and make a beach hut

Geography

- Locate seaside resorts on a map of the UK
- Identify human and physical geographical features of the seaside
- Compare the local seaside with a contrasting seaside locality (the Great Barrier Reef)

ICT

- Using computer software listen to sounds, record sounds and create a series of sounds.

Art & Design

- Seaside pictures and displays using a variety of media
- Appreciating the work of famous artists (Hockney/Turner/Monet etc)

PSHE

- Sun safety
- PATHS programme

PE

- Multi-skills practice
- Sports Day practice

Music

- Seaside sounds
- Using instruments to accompany poetry performances
- Seaside songs

Events and Visits

- Stunning Start: Water Activities
- Royal Norfolk Show (1st July)
- Sports day (3rd July)
- Fabulous Finish: South Wootton Beach day (in school)