2nd half Summer Term
2014
Topic Web
Space and Seaside

Maths

- Using a numberline to count on and back
- Using addition and subtraction to solve practical number problems
- Using everyday language to talk about capacity
- Solving problems involving sharing and halving
- Counting and ordering up to 20

Expressive Arts and Design

- Using percussion instruments to accompany music
- Making models
- Space and seaside roleplay
- Representing own ideas through art

Knowledge of the World

- Using words to describe and talk about their own environment
- Looking for similarities and differences between our own and other planets
- Looking closely at sea creatures and their habitat
- Answering 'how' and 'why' questions about space

Communication and Language

- Extending our vocabulary, exploring the meaning and sounds of new words
- Listening to instructions and information
- Retelling stories, using props and puppets

Literacy

- Using non-fiction texts to find information
- Writing captions and simple sentences
- Practising correct letter formation
- Writing labels
- Talking about story settings and sequence of events
- Writing a description of an alien

Physical Development

- Developing team game skills
- Participating in athletics
- Making sure we hold a pencil properly pincer grip
- Talking about ways to keep healthy and safe

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Working as part of a group
- Exploring new activities
- Choosing resources independently
- Understanding the need for rules and adjusting behaviour to situations.
- Persisting with activities