

To alex

WOW! A Dragun! That is SO exiting!

He sounds the BEST. Draguns are my favourit after unicorns.

Oh dear. It does sound lik yor dragun is VERY BIG and yor house is only normal sized.....he really cant live with you forever.

He needs to find his own place wiv plenty of room to flap about.

IF i was a dragun i wud want to be free.

maybe he shud live sumwhere like the mountains.

As much as you love your dragun....it might be time to let him go.

Love from yor best frend

P.S. Giv your dragun a pat on the head and an iced bun from me!
