

HOME HEROES

Talk about the people who help you in your home.

Watch Anansi and his sons, on BBC website.
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p03rq2p8>

Each of Anansi's sons has a special 'gift', or 'talent'.
Discuss the different things that you and your family members are good at.

The sons in the story were successful because they worked together to save their dad. Share experiences of working together and the advantages of doing so.

Draw a 'superhero' type picture for yourself or of a family member showing something of their special talent in their physical attributes. Display alongside their nickname.

Summer 1 - Week 3

Our Heroes

COMMUNITY HEROES 1

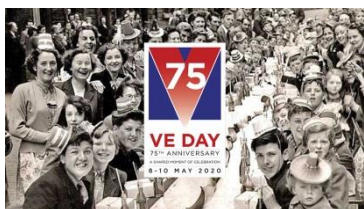

Discuss all the people who are helping us at the moment to keep our country running as 'normal' as possible. From the medical staff, to the farmers, to the shop workers, school staff, delivery drivers, postal workers and many more.

Can you make a list of these people and create a 'thankyou' collage using pictures/words etc?

Photograph your work and we will see if we can put them altogether on our website for everyone to see.

WAR HEROES - VE DAY

Friday May 8th marks 75 years since the end of World War II. People around the country were planning to celebrate with street parties etc but at the moment this isn't possible. So, why not have your own little party at home. Make some Union Jack bunting, have a tea party and make and wave a Union Jack flag

(Twinkl have a nice powerpoint explaining VE day to KS1 children if you want to give your child some background about it)

COMMUNITY HEROES 2

Using household items or junk modelling make a musical instrument that you can use to show your appreciation of all the key workers carers in the country who are helping us out during this difficult time. Join in the weekly Clap for Carers on a Thursday evening at 8pm.

SUPERHEROES

Follow these links on you tube and learn these Superhero dances.

Do you want to be a superhero?
